

Sarah Elizabeth Stoller

Education

- Ph.D., University of California, Berkeley, History 2020
Dissertation: Inventing the Working Parent: Work, Gender, and Feminism in Neoliberal Britain
Committee: James Vernon, Paula Fass, Leslie Salzinger
- M.Phil., Jesus College, University of Cambridge, Modern European History 2011
Dissertation: Representations of Red Army Faction members in the West German popular press, 1970-1977
Advisor: Richard Evans
- B.A. University of California, Berkeley, History, highest honors 2010
Thesis: Britain's 1968: the Student Challenge to the Post-Imperial Consensus
2008-2009: visiting student at Lady Margaret Hall, University of Oxford

Academic Publications

'Forging a Politics of Care: Theorizing Household Work in the British Women's Liberation Movement.' History Workshop Journal, 85 (April 2018): 95–119.

Fellowships & Awards

- Kirk Underhill Graduate Fellowship, Anglo-American Studies Program, UC Berkeley 2019-2020
Mellon CES Dissertation Completion Fellowship 2019-2020 (declined)
AHA Career Diversity Fellowship, UC Berkeley 2018- 2019
Institute for Research on Labor and Employment Research Grant, UC Berkeley 2018
Center for British Studies Dissertation Grant, UC Berkeley 2018
History Department Fellowship, UC Berkeley 2013-2018
George H. Guttridge Prize, Department of History, UC Berkeley 2017-2018
Allan Sharlin Memorial Award, UC Berkeley Institute of International Studies 2017-2018
Graduate Division Summer Grant, UC Berkeley 2016
Foreign Language and Area Studies grant for advanced Turkish Study 2015-2016 (declined)
Max Kade Summer Travel Grant, UC Berkeley German Department 2015
Turkish Embassy Scholarship for a Study Trip to Turkey 2014
Fulbright Scholarship, English Language Teaching Assistant, Berlin, Germany 2011- 2012
English Speaking Union scholarship for post-graduate study in the UK 2010- 2011
Center for British Studies' Kirk Underhill Undergraduate Paper Prize, UC Berkeley 2010
Colin Miller prize in Modern European History, UC Berkeley 2010
Undergraduate Library Research Prize, UC Berkeley 2007

Presentations & Papers

'Becoming a Working Parent: Self-help Culture and 'Having it All.'" North American Conference on British Studies, Vancouver, BC. 16 November 2019.

'Finding the Balance: Working Parents and the Family Friendly Private Sector.' North American Conference on British Studies, Providence, RI. 26 October 2018.

'Feminist labor activism and the making of working parenthood.' Feminism and Politics in 1980s Britain Workshop, Berkeley, CA. 14 March 2018.

'From women's liberation to New Ways to Work: feminist labor activism and the making of working parenthood.' Pacific Coast Conference on British Studies, Santa Barbara, CA. 24 March 2018.

"'Work will not set you free': the Wages for Housework demand in the 1970s British and International Feminist Movements." Pacific Coast Conference on British Studies, Las Vegas, NV. 7 March 2015.

Other Academic and Public Writing

(with Peggy O'Donnell), 'White Weddings and the Politics of Taste,' Jezebel, 26 February 2020, <https://theattic.jezebel.com/white-weddings-and-the-politics-of-taste-1841583261>.

(with James Vernon and Erin Leigh Inama), "The Elephant in the Room: Career Diversity and the Crisis of Grad Student Mental Health," Perspectives on History, October 2019, <https://www.historians.org/publications-and-directories/perspectives-on-history/october-2019/the-elephant-in-the-room-career-diversity-and-the-crisis-of-grad-student-mental-health>.

"Working Parents and the Rise of the 'Family Friendly' Private Sector in Britain" (Berkeley: Institute for Research on Labor and Employment, September 30, 2019), <https://irle.berkeley.edu/working-parents-and-the-rise-of-the-family-friendly-private-sector-in-britain/>.

(with Peggy O'Donnell), 'Loss, Doubt and Liberation: Motherhood in 2018.' History Workshop Online, 24 October 2018. <http://www.historyworkshop.org.uk/loss-doubt-and-liberation-motherhood-in-2018/>

'Directions in the History of the Women's Liberation Movement.' 4 December 2017. University of Oxford, Center for Gender, Identity and Subjectivity. <https://cgis.web.ox.ac.uk/article/conference-review-new-directions-history-womens-liberation-movement>

"A Dilemma for Expats and Repatriates Alike: How to Tip," The Wall Street Journal, August 11, 2015, <https://blogs.wsj.com/expat/2015/08/11/a-dilemma-for-expats-and-repatriates-alike-when-to-tip-how-to-tip/>.

Teaching Experience

University of California, Berkeley

Graduate Student Instructor, Gender and Sexuality in 20th Century U.S. History, Professor Sandra Eder, Spring 2017

Reader, Germany 1914 to the Present, Lecturer Elizabeth Wenger, Fall 2016

Graduate Student Instructor, Modern Britain, Professor James Vernon, Spring 2016

Reader, Europe and the World: Wars, Empires, Nations 1648-1915, Lecturer David Wetzel, Fall 2015

Graduate Student Instructor, Modern France, Lecturer Mark Sawchuk, Spring 2015

Graduate Student Instructor, European Civilization from Renaissance to Present, Professor Thomas Laqueur, Fall 2014

Research Experience

Research Assistant to Professor Caitlin Rosenthal

Spring 2020

Research Assistant to Professor James Vernon

Summer 2017

Advanced Summer Oral History Research Institute, UC Berkeley

Summer 2016

Research Assistant to Professor Stefan Hoffmann

Spring 2014

Service & Leadership

| | |
|--|--------------|
| American Historical Association Career Diversity Fellow | 2018-2019 |
| Graduate Student Representative, Student Health Insurance Advisory Committee | 2017-present |
| Graduate Student Representative, Student Health Advisory Committee | 2017-2018 |
| ABD Chair, History Graduate Association | 2017-2018 |
| NEH Next Generation PhD Grant Planning Committee Member | 2017 |
| Der Kreis: German History Working Group Co-chair | 2013- 2014 |

Languages

German: advanced reading, intermediate speaking and writing
Turkish: basic reading, speaking and writing
Spanish: advanced reading